

CWOA 2017-2018 Evaluation Form - Instructions

CWOA's Evaluation Form is based on the Officiating Standards and is used in conjunction with the Evaluation Standards. The evaluator observes the official's performance and rates accordingly based on the Evaluation Standards. The evaluator will discuss the evaluation with the official as soon as possible after the event.

Official: Self-Explanatory Evaluator: Self-Explanatory

Event: Level (V, JV, Frosh, etc.), Teams or Event Name Date: Self-Explanatory

Standards / Results: Use Evaluation Standards for each subcategory. Subcategory rating reflects the majority of instances that the official demonstrates a certain performance. The subcategory scores may include #.50 as values. Overall raw score is the average of subcategory scores. Round up or down accordingly for the overall standard score to two decimal points.

Example 1: Mechanics overall score of 8.75 with subcategory scores of Positioning – 9, Movement – 8, Anticipation – 9, Match Procedure – 9. Combine subcategories scores (9+8+9+9) for a total of 35. Divide by number of subcategories in Mechanics (4) for score of 8.75. This score would be 8.75.

Example 2: Mechanics overall score of 8.5 with subcategory scores of Positioning – 8.5, Movement – 7.5, Anticipation – 9, Match Procedure – 8.5. Subcategory total of 33.5. Divided by 4 becomes 8.375, rounded up to 8.38.

Raw Score: Overall score for each standard.

x Weight: Each standard is given a certain weight based on relative importance to Total Score.

Points: Multiply Raw Score with weight. Example: Mechanics Raw Score of 8.75 multiplied by Mechanics Weight (1.5) equals 13.125, rounded up to 13.13.

Comments: Evaluator makes appropriate remarks based on official's performance.

Total Score: Add six Standard Points for total score. Example: 13.13+12+22.5+24+5+9=85.63.

Improvement Plan: Evaluator's suggestions to improve official's performance.

Comments (on back side of evaluation): Space used as necessary to include Assistant Official.
